

Kimberly Robinson
Senior Vice President
bank313 Detroit

Kimberly Robinson joined abnk313 as a Senior Vice President, bringing with her a strong foundation of banking and finance expertise and a commitment to strengthening financial services within the Detroit Metropolitan Area. With years of experience in the banking industry—spanning both large regional institutions and small community banks—Kim has built a reputation for cultivating client relationships by becoming a financial partner who is responsive, accessible, and deeply attuned to their needs.

In addition to her corporate leadership, her entrepreneurial background gives her a unique perspective on the challenges and opportunities faced by small business owners, further enriching her ability to serve clients across diverse financial landscapes. Community & Vision Based in the Detroit area, Kimberly is deeply connected with the local community and has been actively involved with several local non-profit organizations. As a wife and mother of four, she brings a grounded, family-centered approach to her work and leadership—balancing professional excellence with a deep commitment to community uplift and personal integrity.
